International relations

The United Nations Department of Peacekeeping Operations/Department of Field Support (UN DPKO/DFS) Integrated Training Service certifies peacekeeping courses, which are conducted in conformity with the relevant UN Peacekeeping Pre-Deployment Training Standards. Our UN Military Expert on Mission Course has received the UN certificate three times in a row.

Fo(u)r Peace Central Europe (4-PCE) is a joint cooperation platform of the Peacekeeping Centres of Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the Netherlands in the field of training and exercises for UN military observers.

The International Association of Peacekeeping Training Centres (IAPTC) is an open and voluntary association of centres, institutions and programmes dealing with peace operations research, education, and training. The German Armed Forces United Nations Training Centre (DEU UN TC) is a full member of the IAPTC and of the regional peacekeeping network in Europe (EAPTC). Furthermore, it is associated to the Latin American Association of Peacekeeping Operations Training Centres (ALCOPAZ) as a member with observer status.

NATO's Partnership Training and Education Centres (PTECs) are education and training institutions that offer courses, seminars, and workshops to both military and civilian personnel, in order to provide education, training and instruction in diverse areas consistent with the objectives and priorities of NATO's policy on partnerships. DEU UN TC became a NATO-recognised PTEC in 2007.

The town of Hammelburg

Market Square

We want to give you the opportunity to enjoy HAMMELBURG, the oldest winegrowing town in Franconia. It is a small town in the Lower Franconian District of BAD KISSINGEN. It is situated at the foothills of the Bavarian RHOEN Mountains and the River SAALE.

The symbols of Hammelburg are the town hall with the market square fountain, the municipal winery in the Red Castle at the pond and the prominent SAALECK Castle on top of the hill.

Hammelburg offers various shopping facilities and a wealth of outdoor leisure activities in a beautiful landscape.

In 2016, the town of Hammelburg celebrates its 1300th anniversary.

Code of conduct inside the barracks

We would like to familiarise you with the most important rules of conduct inside the barracks. We request compliance with the military security instructions that also serve your own safety and security.

Access procedures at the gate on your day of arrival:

- Be prepared to show your passport/ID to the personnel in the guard building at the gate. Your name and passport/ID number are compared with the list established according to the registration details. Admittance is subject to unequivocal identification. You will receive an access card for the duration of the course for entering and re-entering the barracks. Please be prepared to show your access card to the guard personnel at all times.
- Taking photos in the barracks area is only allowed with permission of the responsible authority.
- Entering areas other than your accommodation, the dining facility, the MWR facilities and the training areas requires a military escort.
- The guard personnel are composed of civilian and military elements. Stay in your assigned areas. The guard personnel are authorised to conduct controls and give instructions at all times. Always have your ID and access card at hand and follow the instructions of the guard personnel.

The chief instructor will provide course-specific security instructions and familiarise you with potential hazards and special regulations.
