DEAR GUESTS,

I would like to welcome you to the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine in Cologne. My team and I are committed to making your stay as pleasant as possible. For this purpose, our accommodation and many different activities are at your disposal on the premises of the Wahn Air Force barracks.

If you are staying for a longer period, you can enjoy a variety of leisure activities offered by the city of Cologne. Perhaps you feel like visiting the world-famous landmark of the Rhine metropolis: Cologne Cathedral. Or you could go for a shopping trip in the vibrant city center. You can quickly reach these destinations by means of public transport.

This brochure provides you with an overview of the activities offered within the barracks area and in the immediate vicinity. In addition, you will find the answers to the most important questions concerning your stay here. If you have any further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact your fellow soldiers from accommodation support or the charge of quarters (UvD).

I wish you a pleasant and successful time at the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine..

Dr. Bernhard Groß
Brigadier, Medical Corps
Head of the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine and Surgeon General of the Air Force

DEAR GUESTS,

I would like to welcome you to our modern accommodation quarters, and I hope you enjoy your stay here in Cologne. We would like to provide you, your roommates and all future occupants of the rooms an undisturbed stay in our accommodation. This is why we kindly ask you to comply with the general house rules.

We have compiled important and practical information for you in this brochure along with answers to frequently asked questions. Whether you would like to know the shuttle bus schedule, access the internet or learn more about what to do in case of illness or medical emergencies – you will find all the information you need here. If you have any further individual questions, please don't hesitate to contact my team and me directly.

The accommodation support and the charge of quarters can be found on the ground floor of the accommodation building (room 044). The office is continuously staffed between 15.00 hrs on Sunday and 15.00 hrs on Friday. In urgent cases or in case of their short-term absence, the charge of quarters can be reached by telephone at: 0151 – 18947299. On the weekends (Friday 15.00 hrs to Sunday 15.00 hrs), you may contact me personally via the mobile phone number 0160-6234581.

The most important information from this brochure is available for download using QR codes. We recommend that you download these documents to your mobile phone.

My team and I wish you a pleasant stay in the accommodation quarters.

the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine

The Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine combines all Bundeswehr aeromedical competencies. Under the direction of the Surgeon General of the Air Force, we cover a comprehensive spectrum of services ranging from the assessment of applicants to the organization and conduct of Strategic Aeromedical Evacuation, from the ergonomic design of cockpits and equipment to Air Accident Investigation.

We conduct clinical diagnostics

Our Aeromedical Center in Cologne-Lind is equipped with specialists from nine different clinical areas and with state-of-the-art equipment for standard and specialized diagnostics. Each year, we carry out around 6,000 assessments.

We provide initial and follow-up training

Through numerous courses, we provide initial and follow-up training to flight surgeons as well as aeromedical assistance personnel. Our courses cover the entire field of aerospace medicine, entailing the elements of flight psychology, atmospheric physics and aerospace technology. As far as available capacities permit, we also train civilian doctors to become aeronautical experts in accordance with the requirements of the Federal Office of Civil Aeronautics and the German Medical Association.

We train you to prevail in extreme situations

At our flight physiological training center at the Königsbrück site, we train aircrew, high-altitude parachutists and medical personnel. With the help of large-scale equipment such as the most powerful human centrifuge in Europe, they learn the correct conduct in case of oxygen shortage, spatial disorientation and sudden pressure drop at high altitudes in a safe environment.

We conduct practice-oriented research

We are the only departmental research institute of the German Air Force to conduct research in the field of aerospace medicine with national and international partners. A particularly close cooperation partner in research is the German Aerospace Center (DLR) in Cologne-Lind. Our common objective is to establish a national competence center for aerospace medicine with a focus on Europe and global renown. At the same time, we will ensure that the research findings can be implemented into aeromedical practice in a short period of time.

We live and breathe aviation medicine

The Surgeon General of the Air Force is the chief flight surgeon and is the technical superior of all Bundeswehr flight surgeons in the field of aerospace medicine. With dedicated staff and technical equipment that is second to none worldwide, we are working to ensure and improve the health and performance of the flying and flight support personnel true to our motto: Volanti Subvenimus – We help those who fly.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

and on Examinations for Fitness for Military Flying Duties

Dear applicants,

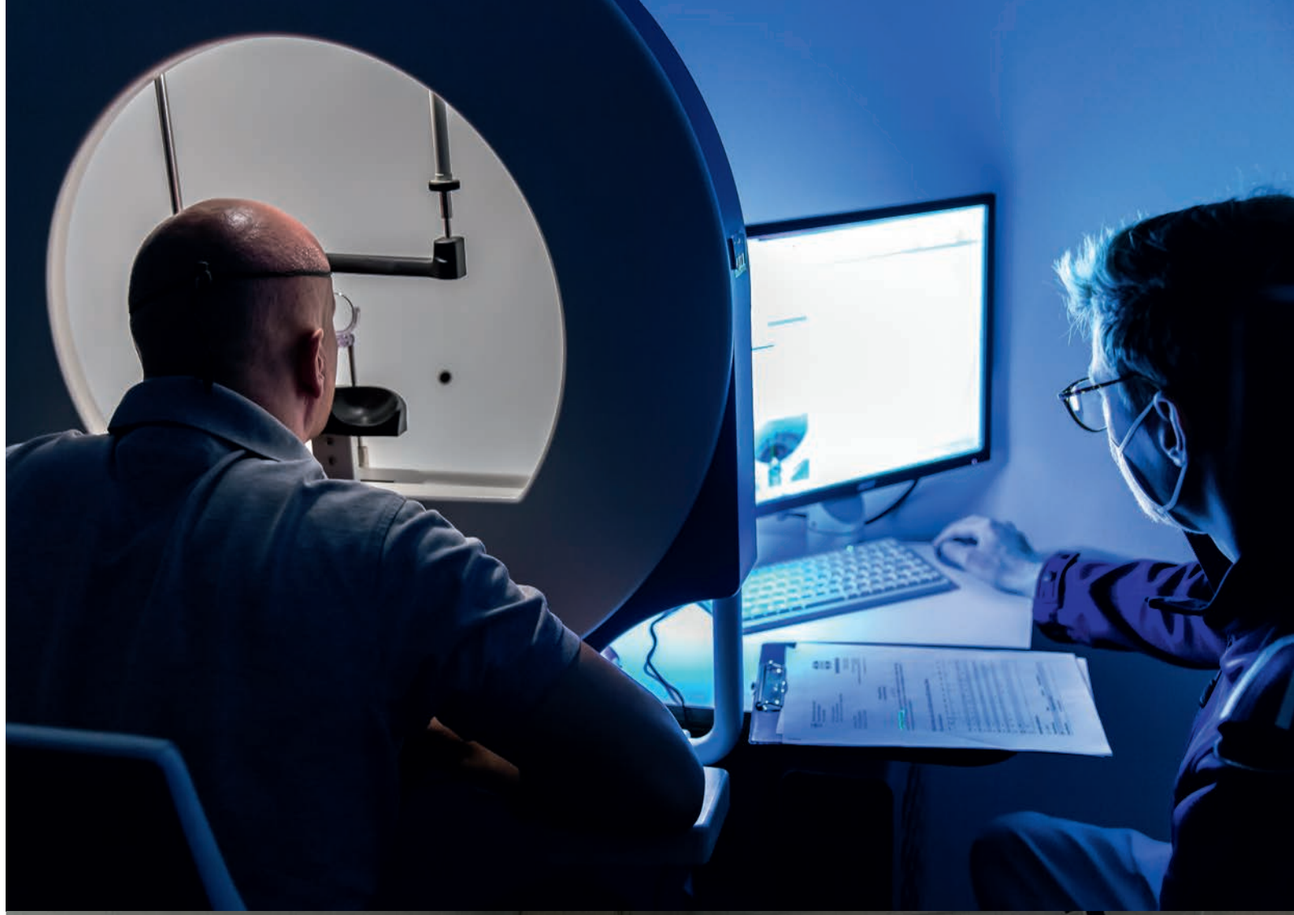

I would like to welcome you to the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine in Cologne-Wahn. You are on your way to fulfilling your dream of becoming flying or flight support personnel and are prepared to undergo the necessary medical examinations.

Everyone here is dedicated to making this exciting step as smooth as possible, which is why we have closely interlinked all processes and coordinated them to minimize waiting time for you. However, we depend on your active cooperation for this.

Punctuality is essential to ensure that the many examinations that must be performed go as smoothly as possible. This applies in particular to your morning bus transfer from the accommodation building to building 2 on the premises of the German Aerospace Center (DLR), where the examinations take place. It is essential to observe the departure time of the shuttle bus.

I am crossing my fingers for your successful completion of the examinations and wish you all the best as you continue with your application.

Dr. Jörg Frischmuth
Colonel, Medical Corps
Chief of AFCAMed Branch II 3 Clinical Aviation Medicine and the Aeromedical Center of the Air Force
Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine

THE APTITUDE ASSESSMENT

Notes on the procerdere

Your examinations will be conducted in building 2 on the DLR premises

The examinations will not be conducted in the Wahn Air Force barracks, but exclusively on the DLR premises in building 2. Please take the shuttle bus there on the day of the examination and report to the Clinical Aviation Medicine Branch, building 2, ground floor, room 041, by 07.00 hrs.

Ranks from colonel/captain [Navy] as well as wing commanders and/or regiment commanders are requested to register in the office of Head of Division II (building 2, 2nd floor, room 234).

Access to the DLR premises for the examinations is only possible by shuttle bus

Applicants cannot access the DLR premises independently with their own car or as pedestrians. Parking facilities for official and private vehicles are only available on the premises of the Wahn Air Force barracks. A free shuttle bus is provided for the ride to the DLR, which departs directly in front of building 690 and returns there from building 2 on the DLR premises. The current schedule can be consulted on the accommodation area notice boards (Air Force barracks, building 690). You can only reach the DLR premises with the shuttle bus. Some shuttle bus trips are only conducted upon request. If you require such a trip, call the telephone number indicated on the bus schedule. We recommend that you download the current schedule to your mobile phone using the QR code.

Please note that as a candidate, you are not allowed to move freely on the DLR premises and may stay inside building 2 only.

Please bring your own food to the examinations

There is no food service for applicants on the DLR premises or in building 2 where your examinations are conducted. If you wish to eat during your stay at the DLR, please bring your own food (snacks, etc.) and drinks. There is a vending machine with snacks and drinks in the common room on the 4th floor of building 2.

Packed lunches will be provided directly in building 2.Transport for lunch at the Wahn Air Force barracks is not planned.

If you wish to take a shower, please bring a towel to the examination

After the stress test on the bicycle ergometer, it is possible to take a shower in the examination building. Please bring your own towels.

DEAR TRAINING PARTICIPANTS,

My team and I are very pleased to welcome you as our guests here in Cologne at the International Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine.

Aviation medicine is a field that my team and I are deeply passionate about, and we have always been committed to sharing this enthusiasm with others. Whether you are new to aviation medicine or looking to refresh and expand your knowledge, we aim to inspire that same passion in you.

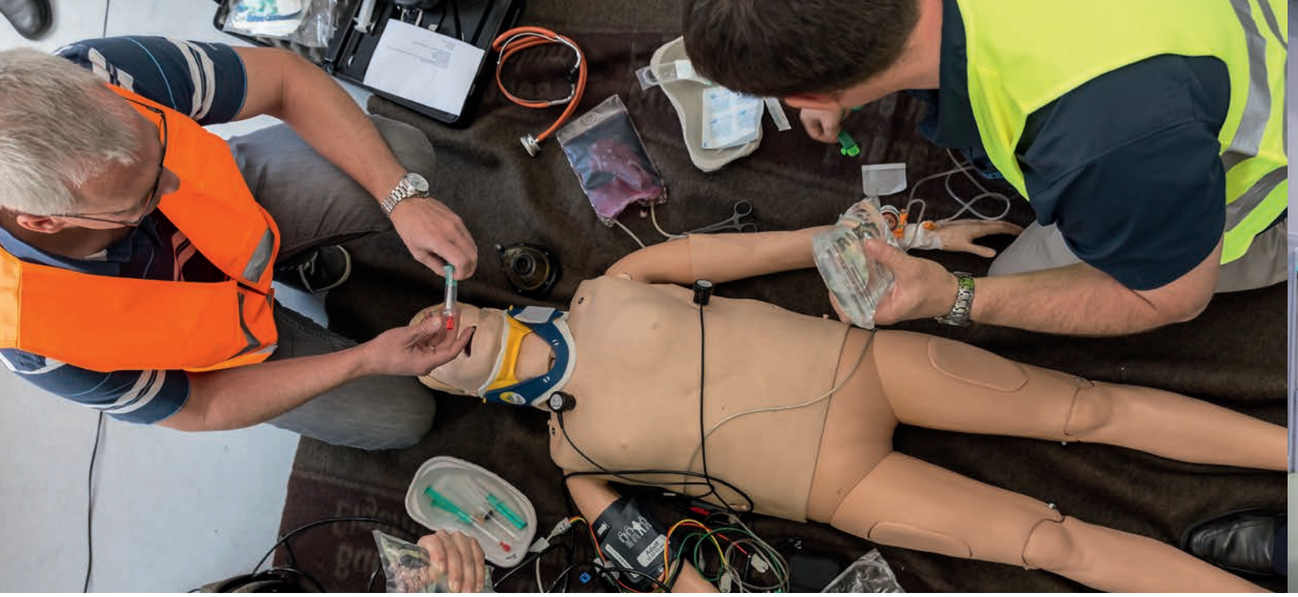

In the coming days, we will explore various topics across different areas of aviation medicine and flight psychology. We would be delighted if you could share your unique experiences with us.

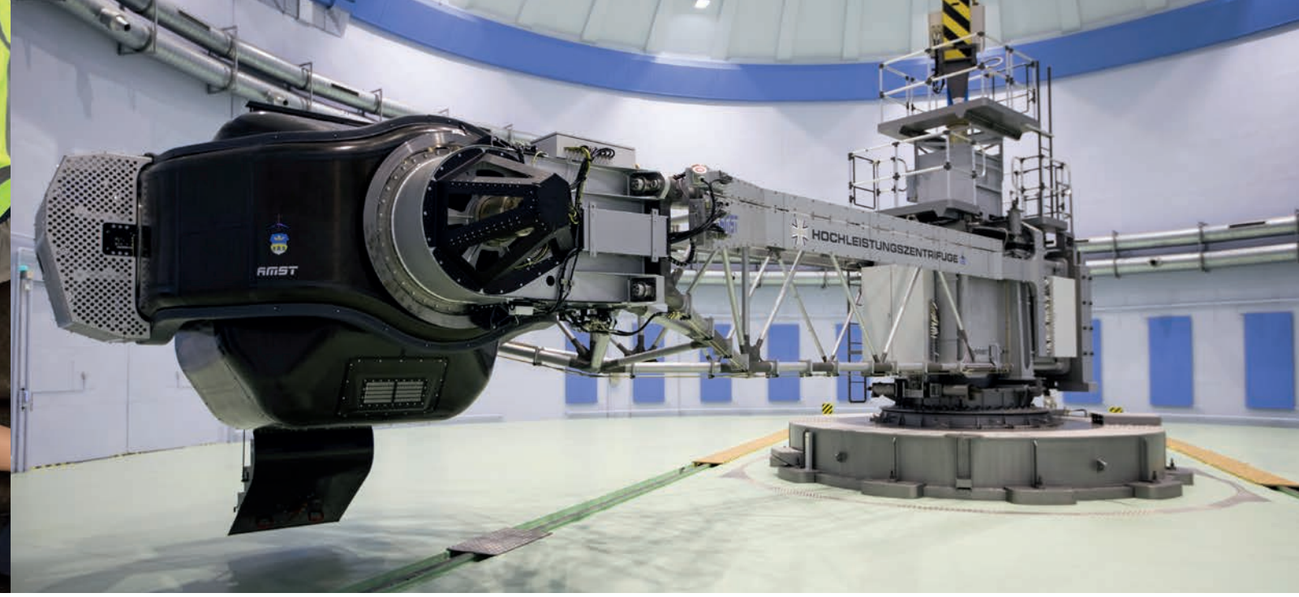

The special atmosphere, shaped by the proximity to the research facilities of the German Aerospace Center and the European Space Agency (ESA) with its astronaut training center, encourages us to take a comprehensive approach to these topics. We hope you truly enjoy your training and wish you the best of success. Enjoy your stay here in Cologne, both during your official duties and in your personal time, and make the most of this extraordinary experience!

My team and I are looking forward to supporting you along the way.

INFORMATION
from A to Z

Arrival

Please check the room for completeness of the equipment in accordance with the inventory list and for damage, defects or missing equipment upon arrival. Any observed defects must be reported immediately to the accommodation support or the charge of quarters of the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine.

Authority to enter the room

Maintenance work on the room will also be carried out in the absence of the user.

ATM

An ATM is located in the entrance area of the junior ranks' club (see keyword "meals"). You will also find ATMs located just outside the barracks.

Bed linen and towels

Used bed linens and towels can be exchanged in building 648, room 18 (Monday – Thursday 06.30 – 16.30 hrs; Friday 06.30 – 12.00 hrs).

Cleaning of the rooms

The building is cleaned by a cleaning company. It is up to you when and how often you wish your room to be cleaned. Contact the charge of quarters for a sign you can hang on your door. Hang it on the outside of your door on weekdays with the red side ("Bitte reinigen" – "Please clean"), facing out, and your room will be cleaned. Please do this at least once a week.

Damages and defects in the rooms

Immediately report any damage to the accommodation, defects in the electrical equipment or other defects to the accommodation support of the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine. Necessary cleaning or damage repair costs will be borne by the user.

Dental care

The dental section is located in building 119. In case of acute illness or pain, please report directly to reception on the 1st floor between 06.30 and 07.30 hrs. Should you wish to make an appointment, please first see the dental section during regular sick call time.

Dental care after duty/outside medical treatment hours:

In the event of a dental emergency after duty or on days with no treatment hours, please consult our civilian colleagues. Use the following link to locate the on-call civilian dentists currently available in your region:

https://www.zahnarzt-notdienst.de/

We would like to stress that after treatment by a civilian medical care provider has been completed, you are required to see your responsible unit physician in order to discuss the possible reimbursement of treatment costs and to plan further treatment. Therefore, we ask you not to sign any supplementary agreements on treatment options unless you are willing to bear the costs personally.

Departure

When vacating the room, the accommodation support will take over the room with the following requirements fulfilled:

- All bed linen must be removed, used bed linen and towels must be exchanged with fresh linen and towels, which must be placed on the bed.
- Lockers, rooms and bathrooms are free of any personal items.
- The room is at least in broom-clean condition.
- The bathroom is in clean condition.
- The windows are closed.
- The refrigerator is emptied.
- The radiator is turned down to the lowest setting.
- The waste bin is emptied.

Evening/nighttime noise complaints

For noise disturbances from specific rooms or gatherings in the outdoor area surrounding the accommodation building, a polite request is typically enough to address the situation and bring an end to the noise. If this does not lead to the desired result, please contact the charge of quarters.

Fire

Please immediately inform the Bundeswehr fire brigade of the Wahn Air Force barracks in case of fire or suspicious smoke development. Tel.: 02203 908 3596 (mil. tel.: 112).

Internet/WiFi

WiFi is available to access the internet from the accommodation. In order to access the internet, you need access to a valid e-mail address. Please proceed as follows:

Bundeswehr personnel:
Select the "iNetiU" network on your device and establish a connection.

- A pop-up window will open. Enter a user name of your choice, along with your personal information and a valid email address that you can currently access.
- You will receive a registration confirmation with a temporary password by e-mail.
- Re-establish a connection with the "iNetiU" network, and enter the user name you have chosen as well as the temporary password. Activate the "change password" option and log in.
- In the next step, you will have to enter a new password that should contain:

a) At least 8 characters

b) At least 1 letter

c) At least 1 CAPITALIZED letter

d) At least 1 number

e) At least 1 special character:
! $ ( : ) = ? + * # - _

Troop dining facilit, building 642

You are now connected to the internet.

Please memorize your user name and password.
Please read the terms and conditions of use for WiFi internet access during the registration process.

If you have trouble accessing the internet or if there is a network malfunction, please contact the network administrators in building 648, room 018.

Internet/WiFi in building 2 on the DLR premises
In the waiting area on the ground floor, you will find a notice with the WiFi access data. If you have any questions or problems, please contact the registration office.

Loss of keys

Immediately report the loss of your keys to the accommodation support or the charge of quarters. In order to gain access to the building and your room in case of lost or forgotten keys, please contact the accommodation support or the charge of quarters. Between Friday 15.00 hrs and Sunday 15.00 hrs, please contact the duty officer of the guard.

Meals

MWR office

The MWR office Cologne provides information on current leisure and cultural activities in the Cologne area and offers support for recreational activities. They provide a large selection of video and board games, bicycles for excursions, outdoor equipment and much more.
The MWR office is located in building 648.
Opening hours:
Monday – Thursday
9.30 – 11.30 hrs and 12.30 – 15.00 hrs
Friday 9.00 – 12.00 hrs

Public transport

You can find the nearest bus stops as well as the city railway station Porz-Wahn in the map included in the annex of this brochure. You can download an overview of the Cologne public transport network on this website:

www.kvb.koeln/fahrtinfo/liniennetzplaene.html

The 160 and 161 line buses depart directly next to the barracks. You can download their current schedule from this website:

www.vrs.de/lis/linie/de:vrs:160

The schedule for the suburban railway (S-Bahn) trains from and to Porz-Wahn can be found on this website:

www.vrs.de/his/haltestelle.de:05315:17701

Private cars and parking facilities in the Air Force barracks

The German Road Traffic Regulations apply throughout the premises. If not indicated otherwise, the maximum speed is 30 km/h. Parking is only allowed in the designated parking areas, which can be found on the barracks map (among others).
All vehicles entering the barracks must be registered and authorized for use on public roads. Private vehicles with obvious safety defects are not allowed to enter the barracks. If such a vehicle is already on the premises, it must be removed immediately. The owner will lose their parking permit on the spot.

Reporting sick

Medical care is provided by the Medical Clinic Cologne-Wahn in the Air Force barracks in building 119. For medical assistance, please go to room E12 in the treatment area between 07.00 and 09.00 hrs.
Bring your sick note with you in order to report sick. You can obtain it in the orderly room in building 621, first floor, room 117.

On weekends & outside of duty hours:
In case of acute illness outside of duty hours, please contact the public medical emergency service at the civilian telephone number 116 117.

After that, a unit physician should additionally be consulted during their duty hours.
In case of major medical emergencies and accidents in which immediate medical care is required, call the civilian rescue service at the telephone number 112.

Shopping facilities

In the annex of this brochure you will find a map with options for grocery shopping in the vicinity of the Air Force barracks.

Shuttle bus between the barracks and the DLR premises

The shuttle bus goes back and forth between the Air Force barracks and building 2 on the premises of the German Aerospace Center (DLR). You can find the schedule on the notice board in the entrance area of accommodation building 690. We recommend that you download the current schedule to your mobile phone using the QR code.

For applicants:
You can only access the DLR premises by shuttle bus. You will not be granted access as a pedestrian or in a private car. Please note that the DLR is a civilian facility, and you may not move freely on its premises. On the DLR premises, you are only allowed to stay in building 2 of the Air Force Center of Aerospace Medicine.

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited inside the buildings. Smoking areas can be found in front of the buildings next to the red ashtrays. Cigarette vending machines are located in the entrance area of the junior ranks'/all ranks' club in building 640.

Snacks and drinks (junior ranks' club)

Vending machines where you can buy snacks, drinks and cigarettes are located in the entrance area of the junior ranks' club (see keyword "meals").

Medical Clinic Cologne-Wahn

Sports

The Wahn Air Force barracks offer a variety of outdoor sports facilities, three gymnasiums and two fitness rooms. If you wish to use these facilities, please contact the Sportstättenvergabe (responsible for sports facility allocation) of the Wahn Air Force Support Group for further information (see telephone list) or talk to the gymnasium caretaker in building 212 between 6.00 and 17.00 hrs.

Opening hours of the sports facilities in building 212:
Monday to Sunday 6.30 to 21.30 hrs. If you want to go running, you can do so on the tartan track at our sports facility. The running routes in the neighboring area of Wahnheide are also especially scenic.

Using the kitchen

Kitchens are available for use on each floor. After use, we kindly ask you to wash the dishes and leave the kitchen in clean condition.

Waste disposal

The waste bin must be emptied at least once a week and on the day of departure. This also applies to waste bins in the kitchenette. Containers are located at the front of building 691.

Washing machines

Washing machines and dryers are located on the ground floor of Building 690.

Valuables

There are lockers available for safeguarding valuables.
